

VS

Gas Lawn Mower

- The gas mower emits air pollutants such as carbon dioxide, carbon monoxide, hydrocarbons, volatile organic compounds, nitrogen oxides, and particulate matter.
- The exhaust emissions can lead to health effects such as respiratory disease, cancer, cardiovascular disease, neurological conditions, and premature death.
- The gas mower is very loud and requires earmuffs.
- More $ is spent on Gasoline.
- Starting difficulties.
- It is much heavier.
- It has a faster mow speed.
- The mower costs less $ in stores.

Electric Lawn Mower

- The electric mower is emissions free, meaning it is better for the environment.
- There are no hazardous health effects.
- The electric mower is much quieter.
- Less $ is spent on electricity.
- There is a push button for an easy start.
- It is much lighter.
- It takes longer to mow.
- The electric mower costs more $ in stores.